

Welcome to PVGRC'S
VETERANS DAY
August 15, 2021

Thanks to Beth Sokohl and Kelly Shuffelbottom for letting us use their beautiful property to celebrate our seniors! This morning is all about our veteran dogs. Enjoy and make some beautiful memories together!

Blessed is the person who has earned the love of an old dog. -- Sidney Jeanne Seward

“...the lovers of the breed referred to this expression as the golden smile, which was easily offered and so different from the false smile of a dog merely panting.” – Dean Koontz, “The Darkest Evening of the Year”

We can learn a lesson from these dogs. Just because their muzzles are graying and their eyes are clouding over and their hearing is going, it doesn't necessarily mean their number is up. They may take a little more time to get ready, but, folks, they WILL get ready. Take your senior dogs for walks in the park. Take them to the swimming hole. Take them to the drive-through window at their favorite fast food place. Keep these senior citizens interested in life, and they'll do their best to keep life interested in them!

Today's age: 13 years 5 months 10 days

Sire: CH Mo-K's Heart of the Sea CDX RE JH NAP

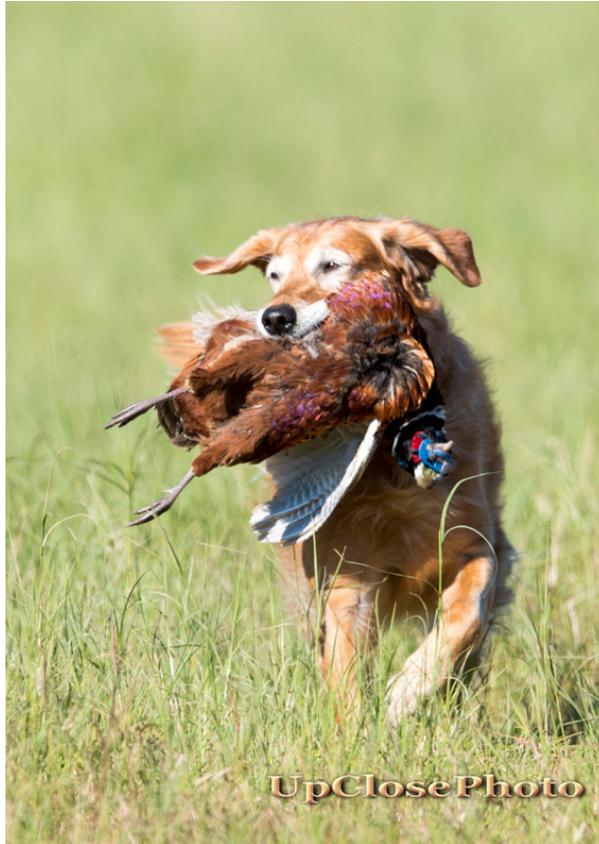

Dam: Edgcombe's Highland Thistle

Breeder and first owners: Maureen Kelley and Joann Blackman

Proud forever owner and handler: Debra Barrows

Caper has been a joy to train, show and own. Maureen and Joann left me a happy, energetic, well-balanced dog full of life to work in the obedience, rally, field, and breed ring. Caper enjoys most visiting with his human friends! He hasn't met anyone that isn't an instant friend, he personifies a great golden personality. A willingness to work, good work ethic, but most of all a gentle nature around and with all humans.

Three Words to Describe Caper – Loving, kind, gentle

Jazz succeeded in everything she was asked to do. My first Master Hunter, my first trip to the Master National, my first litter, and she did it in her own way, but she always got the job done. She has always managed to be the silent ruler of the household, and guardian against all critters coming into the yard..bird or rodent. LOL

Lottie is an accomplished and joyful agility, rally and obedience partner, a lover of dock diving, and a loving family member. As a younger dog, while awaiting her turn to go into the conformation ring, she was captured on camera in a photo that made her "Miss November" in the annual GRCA calendar. But clearly her most impressive accomplishment was the litter of puppies she birthed, two of which became service dogs supporting America's servicemen and women.

Three Words to Describe Lottie – Sweet, lovable, enthusiastic

Greta came to live with us last September because her Mom couldn't take care of her anymore. When her littermate, our beloved Ryder, crossed the Bridge three weeks later, she made it her job to heal our broken hearts. She is the best bed buddy you could ask for. At her age she still loves going to Obedience and Rally class and she gets really mad when she is not the one being asked to retrieve bumpers. She has put our twenty month old, eighty eight pound Bobby in his place and he knows who is boss. We love her so very much and are so lucky she came to live with us.

Three Words to Describe Greta – sweet, smart and adorable!

Riley's last title earned was her CDX when she was nine. Pre-Covid she enjoyed her work as a Therapy Dog, but hasn't had the chance to go back to the nursing home, yet. She enjoys scent work. Riley is starting her own excavating services. The best part, at least for her, she has trained the neighbors to give her their green beans from their garden by wagging her tail.

Bruno has met all my expectations, meeting each goal I have laid in front of us. We earned Utility and Senior Hunter, titles that none of his forebears back four generations achieved. He loves to retrieve. And he loves to work. We are currently working towards a Master Hunt (Upland). And dabbling in FastCat for fun. In all of our training, not once have I used an e-collar. With Bruno, learning is "no batteries required." A mentor put it best, Bruno can succeed this way because he so very much wants to please me. A sweet dog, he is an excellent pack member. As I look in his eyes, I can see he appreciates all the work we have put in, and how he looks forward to more. However, the past few years his orthopedics have started to betray him. We will get through it, together.

Three Words to Describe Bruno – Loyal, Reliable, Beautiful

He has passed along his romping in the field to his offspring, and he continues to make everyone laugh.

We drove up to New York on the coldest day of the winter to pick up our puppy. Little did I know the journey Cooper and I would share. He was the only boy in the litter so he learned quickly to hoard treats and toys from the girls while they were distracted. Cooper loves to train and work, no matter what the venue. Cooper is my first master hunter and my first agility champion. We are now training together in tracking. When not working he loves to snuggle on the couch with whoever happens to be there.

Three Words to Describe Cooper – sweet, intelligent, perfect (He has been my only absolutely perfect puppy, never getting into trouble!!)

Kaper has been my best bud for 9+ years. His even, gentle temperament bode us well in the Obedience and Agility rings and in the field. Despite the fact that he often marches to the beat of his own drummer, he earned his UD in 6 trials and got his SH in 5 tests. With 2 MH passes under his belt, we are hoping to have enough time together to finish that title. If nothing else, he certainly has fun whatever he is doing even if it's just curling up on his bed while we watch TV.

Cassie has been our enthusiastic agility partner since she taught herself how to master the teeter totter as a puppy. As the most rambunctious puppy from our Lottie's one and only litter, she has proven to have the quintessential Golden personality. Her love of people has taken her to a visit with every member of every agility ring crew. But every night is snuggle time, when she cuddles – forcefully – in the lap of one member of the family until bedtime.
